City of Mission Viejo • General Municipal Election • November 6, 2018

In the space below, PLEASE TYPE a brief description (no more than 200 words), of the candidate's education and qualifications.

CITY OF MISSION VIEJO MEMBER OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Candidate's Name	Occupation	Age (optional)
Wendy Bucknum	Councilmember/Businesswoman	55

My family and I have lived in Mission Viejo for over 25 years. We appreciate the excellent schools and the abundant entertainment and recreational opportunities. Over the years, I have volunteered with Little League, High School Aquatics and Football Boosters, and the Nadadores.

Before seeking a seat on the Mission Viejo City Council, I served on the Community Services Commission, which gave me a greater understanding of Mission Viejo's accomplishments and of the need to offer programs that serve all our residents in a variety of ways.

During my first term in office, I have strengthened public safety by increasing the number of School Resource Officers, instituting a Drug Prevention Coalition, leading Neighborhood Watch town halls and employing both city and private resources to identify and help the homeless.

I have improved our municipal facilities by renovating the Marguerite Aquatics Center, opening the Potocki Center for the Arts, and installing a Water Purification Facility to provide sustainable reclaimed water to Lake Mission Viejo.

I have created economic opportunities by partnering with the Chamber of Commerce, inviting new businesses and restaurants to come to Mission Viejo, and encouraging construction of the Mission Hospital Leonard Cancer Institute.

My unstinting efforts have earned widespread support among seniors, business and community leaders, and neighbors citywide. I respectfully ask for your vote on November 6.
